

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to wholeheartedly recommend Shambhavi Palni, who interned at LittleBird India from June 6th to August 6th, 2022. Shambhavi possesses a unique blend of creativity and technical expertise that sets her apart. Her ability to craft imaginative designs and functional 3D renders consistently impressed our team and clients. She demonstrates a deep understanding of user-centric design solutions and exhibits excellent problem-solving skills. Moreover, Shambhavi's open-mindedness in accepting feedback and her commitment to growth greatly contributed to a positive work environment. She is a responsible, time-efficient, and respectful professional who adds immense value to any organization.

Shambhavi's internship experience highlighted her exceptional combination of creativity and technical proficiency. Her strong problem-solving abilities, effective communication skills, and commitment to her work make her an asset to any academic institution or future endeavour. I have no doubt that Shambhavi's conduct, dedication, and skills make her a strong candidate for any graduate program or opportunity she pursues.
